

Happenings in Intermountain States.

DENVER.

An important meeting was held in the rooms of Father Phillips last Wednesday afternoon, at which plans were adopted for the erection of a residence for Bishop Matz. A number of the clergy were present, and several suggestions were offered.

The plan finally adopted calls for a double house, half of which will serve as an episcopal residence, and the other half be used by the priests of the cathedral parish.

Each section will contain about ten rooms. The building will face on Colfax avenue, and will adjoin the cathedral grounds. There will be no connection whatever between the two residences.

The priests present at Wednesday's meeting were: Rev. Fathers Phillips, Malone, Robinson, Carrigan, Francis and Morris.

As was previously announced in the columns of the Intermountain Catholic, the consecration of St. Elizabeth's church will take place on Sunday. The services will open at 8 a. m. and continue throughout the day. During the week a number of visiting prelates arrived.

Sixty children and fifteen adults will receive their first holy communion at St. Leo's church tomorrow (June 8) at 7 o'clock.

Father O'Ryan will leave Sunday morning for Victor, where he will lecture Sunday evening under the auspices of the A. O. H. for the convention fund. His subject will be: "Genius of Modern Ireland." On Thursday following he will lecture on the same subject, and for the same purpose, at Colorado Springs. His speech will be a review of the literature being produced now and in the past quarter of a century by Irishmen and women.

Father Robinson and Father Carrigan are busily engaged in making preparations for a picnic to be held by the Annunciation and St. Patrick's parishes at Berkeley Lake on July 4.

The date of the wedding of Miss Belle Dunphy and Mr. Peter Schaeffer has been set for June 18.

The convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will take place in Denver during the first week of July.

St. Mary's academy will hold its commencement exercises on the evening of June 18.

Several labor leaders called at St. Leo's rectory last Sunday on their way home from a meeting held at San Francisco last week. Among them was Mr. Lally of Boston.

Denver friends of Rev. John F. Quinn, pastor of the cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament in San Francisco, are in receipt of cards announcing the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination, which took place on May 26.

Father Quinn was pastor of the Denver cathedral about eighteen years ago, and is still fondly remembered by a number of Denver Catholics.

Dr. P. V. Carlin and wife left for Saratoga, N. Y., last Friday night, where the doctor will attend the annual congress of American physicians. They will remain in the east for several weeks, visiting various points of interest.

Bishop Matz spent last Sunday in Pueblo.

Miss Ellen Smith and Walter Eader were married by Father O'Ryan in St. Leo's church last week.

Father Dempsey, a classmate of Father Callahan at Maynooth college in Ireland has been appointed assistant at the cathedral. He preached on the Blessed Sacrament at the 11 o'clock mass last Sunday.

Beginning with Sunday, June 8, there will be low mass and instruction every Sunday at 11 o'clock. The sermon and high mass will be discontinued until September.

Father J. R. White was called to his home in Carbondale, Pa., by the illness of his aunt.

Francis Larkin was received into the Catholic church by Father O'Ryan last week.

Special memorial services were held under the auspices of the Knights of St. John at St. Leo's church on May 30. The chaplain, Father Casey, celebrated high mass at 9:30. At the offertory Miss Bertie Berlin sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought."

The Aandren club will entertain their friends at a picnic at Elliptic Gardens on Saturday evening, June 7.

Mrs. John Lennon and children of Waco, Texas, arrived on Tuesday and will spend the summer in Denver.

Father Malone will leave for the east on Monday next.

With solemn ceremony the church of the Annunciation at Leadville was consecrated the Feast of Corpus Christi. A large number of the priests of the diocese were present and participated in the services.

The sermon was preached by Father Robinson of Denver, who was first pastor of the Leadville church. He was succeeded by Father Brown, who died in 1898.

Father Gibbons of Denver is present pastor, and to his zeal and energy is due in a great measure the success of the Leadville church.

Among the clergy from Denver who attended the consecration ceremonies were Rt. Rev. N. C. Matz, Rev. Fathers Robinson, Malone, Phillips, Callahan, Morris and Eusebio.

PUEBLO.

Rev. Bishop Matz Administers Confirmation at Pueblo.

The Rev. Bishop Matz of Denver arrived in Pueblo last Saturday. On Sunday 300 people were confirmed by him in the Grove churches. It was a busy day for the bishop and the local clergy, and one of the largest classes in the history of the Catholic churches in this city partook of the solemn and beautiful ceremony.

After the sermon at St. Mary's church a class about eighty persons, composed of both young and old, were confirmed. The class had been for some time under the instruction of Father Cyril and were adequately prepared, both in knowledge of the scriptures and in the articles of faith, to accept the confirmation. The service began with early mass, and at 10:30 o'clock high mass was said at St. Mary's church, the bishop assisting in the sanctuary, after which the bishop delivered the confirmation sermon, which was one of the most eloquent and splendid spiritual addresses ever heard in the city. The special music rendered for the occasion was very fine.

At Mount Carmel church the service began at 2 o'clock and lasted over two hours, and over 400 people received the benediction of the blessed confirmation service. The sermon and music were dispensed with, owing to the great growth of the class. The class was composed of Italians and Mexicans and was the largest ever had in Pueblo.

Father Matz has done excellent work among this people, and to him is accredited the success of the meetings.

After this the confirmation will take place every year, instead of once in three years, as is the custom.

The bishop, accompanied by Fathers Massa and Bruner, will visit Boone and confirm a large class there before leaving Pueblo.

Mrs. Beesie Oida Dollis is seriously ill at St. Mary's sanitarium.

Mrs. W. F. McCaffery, wife of Chief of Police McCaffery, is in Boulder visiting her brother-in-law.

J. J. Langdon, who is in St. Mary's hospital suffering from the effects of blood poisoning, is on the high road to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lippert and daughter, of Cripple Creek, are the guests of Mrs. Mary Norton on east Abriendo avenue.

The daughter of John McCarney is dangerously ill at the family residence on Eaton avenue.

Thomas McElroy and T. W. Jones left last Monday for a visit of several months in Ireland.

Frank Kelly is confined in his bed with typhoid fever, at his home, the Mechanic hotel.

Mrs. Robert H. McMann of Denver is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John H. Thatcher, 1915 Greenwood street.

Miss Ada Lenore Kelly will leave in a few days to spend her vacation with relatives in Detroit, Mich. During her absence from the city she will also visit in Chicago.

William McGarvey, who came here from Johnston, Pa., a short time ago, has gone to Euclid to locate.

Charles Cullerton, who has been residing on east Evans avenue, is sick at St. Mary's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fisher arrived from Auburn, Neb., last week and are stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reno, 221 East Third street. Mr. Fisher has accepted a position with J. I. Pearson and will enter upon his duties in a few days.

William H. Sweeney, Jr., has arrived home from the government hospital at Hot Springs, where he has been for several months. It is understood that his health has greatly improved under the treatment he has been undergoing and is now in the high road to complete recovery.

Mr. McDonald, chairman of the relief committee for the flood sufferers, yesterday received by mail from the First National bank a check for $30. This contribution brings the total up to $334.12.

Secretary T. C. Maloney of the Pueblo Eagles is making inquiries about Tim Crowley, a well known Pueblo man who is reported to have been killed near Trinidad about May 15. Crowley was a crowd worker at the insurrection here and was a familiar figure about the streets. He left here some weeks ago to go to New Mexico, where he had a situation, and since then nothing has been heard of him. On June 15 a man, said to answer the description of Crowley, was killed near Trinidad and buried there after an attempt was made to find out something about him. Mr. Crowley was a member of Pueblo No. 14, Fraternal Order of Eagles, and his brethren are anxious to learn his fate.

BUTTE.

Miss May McHugh of Anaconda is a guest at the Finlen.

John F. Burke, one of Anaconda's prominent young business men, is stopping at the Thornton.

James E. Thompson arrived in the city from Missoula last Sunday, and is stopping at the Finlen. He will be in the city for several days. Mr. Thompson has many friends here who are delighted to see him.

James F. Maloney, proprietor of the Northern hotel of St. Paul, is at the Finlen, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Helen Maloney. Mr. and Mrs. Maloney have been visiting with Dr. Maloney of Hunter's Hot Springs, who is Mr. Maloney's son.

Margaret Daly, as administratrix of the estate of the late Marcus Daly, has been made the defendant in a suit brought in the district court to recover $25,000. The suit is based on the ground that the estate owes the money on unfilled contracts to buy land and water rights in the Warm Creek district. Heretofore the Browns brought two suits, one apiece, in which each of them sought to recover $12,500. The separate claims are joined in this suit.

William Shields, a shoemaker, was seriously injured in the Never Sweat mine last night. He was working on the third floor of the 1,800-foot level when some rock fell from overhead, and a piece struck him on the head, fracturing the skull. The man was taken to St. James' hospital. Deputy Mining Inspector Barry was notified of the accident shortly after it occurred, and made an investigation of the case.

The funeral of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Kasiska was held at 3 o'clock last Friday, from St. Joseph's church. In the absence of Father Canfield Donckt from the city, the services were conducted by Father Mooney.

Mrs. John McCarthy entertained a few friends last Friday in honor of her mother, who leaves for Ogden tomorrow morning. Hospitality was the pastime of the evening, after which dining refreshments were served.

Trainmaster George L. Hickey has returned after taking his son out to Payette for a visit with his grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Bennett. Mrs. Hickey is quite ill at Salt Lake City, and young Mr. Hickey will visit in Payette until his mother recovers.

Mr. P. O'Grady, cashier of the Citizens Savings Bank of Avondale, Ia., arrived in the city this morning. He is a son of Mr. A. O'Grady, the old gentleman so cruelly assaulted here Monday evening and now in the hospital at Salt Lake City. Immediately upon receipt of the news, he started for Pocatello, and did not know that his father had been taken to the hospital until he arrived here. This morning, he started for the city, and the train for Salt Lake City. The news from Salt Lake City is that O'Grady is getting along very nicely. When first taken there, his mind was still clouded and he caused considerable alarm by escaping from the hospital. He was soon found, however, and is reported much better.
